Report from the Management Company

To the Unit holders,

The main Fund unit class IC1 (EUR) rose by 20.10% in 2015. The stated strategy of the Fund is to hold roughly a third of small, medium and large cap healthcare companies respectively, over time. This strategy renders the portfolio diversified and more balanced than otherwise. Another way in which the portfolio benefits from diversification is through its exposure to several different subsectors of healthcare, namely pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, medical technology and services.

In 2015, small cap healthcare companies outperformed large cap by a few percentage points for the year overall. Although small caps were clearly in the lead until mid-July, August and September were volatile months, after which the large caps had the edge. In August, global stock markets contracted sharply following a sudden devaluation of the Chinese currency which resulted in genuine concern for the strength of the Chinese economy and the global growth outlook. Even though the currency move was only 3-4%, it was interpreted as a signal that the Chinese policy makers were becoming concerned. It is fair to say that the manufacturing side of the Chinese economy is growing at a slower pace than before. It is also highly likely that the GDP growth rate will fall, from nearly 7% in 2015 to perhaps just under 6% in 2017. However, this is still a fairly decent growth rate for an economy of that size. At the same time the service sector is still expanding, as indicated by non-manufacturing PMI figures well above 50.

Following the setback in August, September too was another negative month for the healthcare sector. On this occasion a discussion regarding unreasonable drug pricing was sparked when an ex-hedge fund manager, now the CEO of a small pharmaceutical company, raised the price of a recently acquired drug by more than 50 times overnight. The drug in question was over 50 years old and without patent protection. However the company in question, Turing Pharmaceuticals, was the sole supplier of the drug at the time. Shortly after this, presidential candidate Hillary Clinton voiced her intention to stop such price gouging, which caused a significant sell off in healthcare overall, and in biotech in particular.

Biotech is a subsector that often develops drugs for diseases with high unmet medical needs, meaning that there is often no approved treatment for the targeted indication. Pricing, under this scenario, an important variable when attracting risk capital and drug development capabilities, is assumed to be market based, or free. A regulated pricing environment would therefore, the market interpreted, be a significant risk to many biotech players. It should be noted however, that the US biotech industry is one of the most successful export industries in a country that wishes to be a leader in innovation. Presidential candidate Clinton followed her comments regarding unacceptable price gouging by saying that companies who bring about innovation have nothing to fear. It is also worth mentioning that the overall pricing environment in the US is showing low single digit growth, despite some areas of higher price increases. This is due to the fact that, in volume terms, drugs which have come off patent make up the vast majority of the drugs prescribed. In this sense the market is healthy, since new and paradigm changing drugs are able to be priced high enough to motivate innovation, while there is a steady stream of drugs coming off patent, allowing some slack in the total drug bill which makes up around 11% of the overall healthcare cost in the US.

Despite the difficult second half of 2015, all healthcare subsectors outperformed a general equity index for the year overall. The best performer was services, followed closely by biotech which, for reasons mentioned above, did not recover from the setback in the early autumn. Medtech performed slightly better than Pharma, which was the weakest performer.

One exciting development in 2015 was the prospect of a more efficacious disease-modifying drug class for rheumatoid arthritis patients, with the added benefit of it being a once a day pill instead of an injection or an infusion, as with the current treatment paradigm. In fact the Fund's best performing stock in 2015, Galapagos, is one of the companies developing such a drug in the JAK class. In a recent study, Incyte's JAK drug candidate beat the leading drug in the anti-TNF class, Humira, in terms of efficacy in RA patients. The anti-TNF class generated sales totaling 35 bn USD in 2014, of which 14 bn

USD was attributed to Humira, making it the biggest drug in the world by revenue. Therefore, the market for the new, efficacious and oral JAK class should have significant opportunities ahead.

For the year overall, the USD appreciated about 10% versus the Euro, creating a tailwind for the Fund's main share class which is Euro denominated, given that around 70% of the assets are US companies. Continued USD strength would benefit large European companies and create corresponding headwinds for internationally active US corporates. The headwind effect will be less noticeable for most US biotech companies given that the majority of their revenues originate in the US, but they are also growing at such a hefty pace that the currency headwind will not be as much of a burden.

On the macro front, the year has contained geopolitical uncertainty caused by the ongoing war in Syria, which has forced millions of people to seek refuge in Europe and elsewhere. This has resulted in political tension, both on national and international levels. Another tragic event was the terrorist attack in Paris in November, which cost 130 people their lives, and injured over 350. At the same time the US election debates are colored by more protectionist winds both with respect to trade but also with respect to safety and security from further terrorist attacks. Meanwhile, the Federal Reserve carried out the first rate hike in nearly a decade in December, in the first attempts at normalizing interest rate policy.

After a year of strong performance for the Fund we still see good opportunities for a successful 2016 for the healthcare sector. At the same time it is an election year in US, which generates news headline risks for the sector. Candidates may suggest some level of price regulation as well as wider discounts from the pharmaceutical industry. This may alarm equity market participants in the short term but, in our view, the likelihood of a significant change to the system is low as this requires a congressional agreement which would demand that both the House of Representatives and the Congress were controlled by the Democrats. Even under that scenario system change will be difficult to push through as many Americans value their ability to choose drugs freely as opposed to the government telling them, for instance, which HIV treatment they are allowed to use.

Valuations are not stretched, if compared to a longer historical perspective, while the drivers for the sector overall are solid. Innovation is very strong, pipelines are maturing and the most meaningful patent cliff is behind us. Recently growth rates in Emerging Markets have slowed somewhat, but long term low penetration rates, rising purchasing power, improving life expectancy and the increasing prevalence of chronic disease such as diabetes, COPD and cancer all support future demand growth for healthcare in these markets.

Note 1 - Significant accounting policies

a) Presentation of the financial statements

The financial statements of the Fund are established in accordance with the Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements concerning Undertakings for Collective Investment.

b) Valuation

- 1) The value of any cash on hand or on deposit, bills and demand notes and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash dividends and interest declared or accrued as aforesaid and not yet received is deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless in any case the same is unlikely to be paid or received in full, in which case the value thereof is arrived at after making such discount as may be considered appropriate in such case to reflect the true value thereof.
- 2) The value of assets, which are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, is based on the last available price of the preceding business day on the stock exchange, which is normally the principal market for such assets.
- 3) The value of assets dealt in on any other regulated market which is recognised, operating regularly and open to the public (a "Regulated Market") is based on the last available price.
- 4) In the event that any assets are not listed or dealt in on any stock exchange or on any other Regulated Market, or if, with respect to assets listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, or other Regulated Market as aforesaid, the price as determined pursuant to sub-paragraph (2) or (3) is not representative of the fair market value of the relevant assets, the value of such assets will be based on the reasonably foreseeable sales price determined prudently and in good faith.
- 5) The liquidating value of options contracts not traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets is their net liquidating value determined, pursuant to the policies established by the AIFM, on a basis consistently applied for each different variety of contracts. The liquidating value of futures, forward or options contracts traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets are based upon the settlement or closing prices of these contracts on the preceding business day on exchanges and Regulated Markets on which the particular futures, forward or options contracts are traded by the Fund; provided that if a futures, forward or options contract could not be liquidated on the day with respect to which net assets are being determined, the basis for determining the liquidating value of such contract shall be such value as the Board of Directors of the AIFM may deem fair and reasonable.
- 6) Units or shares of open-ended underlying funds are valued at their last determined and available Net Asset Value or, if such price is not representative of the fair market value of such assets, then the price shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the AIFM on a fair and equitable basis and in good faith.
- 7) All other securities and other assets are valued at fair market value as determined in good faith pursuant to the procedures established by the AIFM.

c) Net realised gain/ (loss) on sales of securities

The net realised gain/ (loss) on sales of securities is determined on the basis of the average cost of securities sold.

Note 4 - Performance fee

The Portfolio Manager is also entitled to receive a performance fee, payable out of the Sub-Fund's assets.

Calculation of the performance fee for all classes except for Class IC4 (EUR)

The performance fee is calculated and accrued monthly in the respective unit classes as described below and is paid out quarterly in arrears. The first period ended on 30th June 2009 and being followed by each successive quarter thereafter (the "Calculation Period").

For each Calculation Period, the performance fee in respect of each unit is equal to 20% (10% for the Class IC3 (EUR) Unit) of the appreciation in the Gross Asset Value per each unit of that class during the Calculation Period above the Base Net Asset Value per each unit of that class. For Class D Units the Gross Net Asset Value (GNAV) used for the calculation of the Performance Fee will be adjusted by any dividend distributions made during the relevant Calculation Period.

The Gross Net Asset Value is calculated after the accrual of all fees but prior to the accrual of any Performance Fee on the relevant Valuation Day.

The Base Net Asset Value per each unit is the greater of the Net Asset Value of that unit at the time of issue of that Unit multiplied by the 3 months EURO Interbank Offered Rate on the last bank business day of the previous calculation period adjusted for monthly return and the highest NAV of that Unit achieved as of the end of any previous Calculation Period (if any) during which such unit was in issue multiplied by the 3 months EURO Interbank Offered Rate for the relevant calculation period adjusted for monthly return.

For the Class IC2 units, certain adjustments will be made to reduce inequities that would occur for investors subscribing for Units at a time when the Net Asset Value per Unit is other than the Base Net Asset Value per Unit (Equalisation).

For Class IC4 (EUR)

For Class IC4 (EUR) Unit, the performance fee is calculated and accrued monthly and is paid out annually in arrears. The Calculation Period will start on 1st January and end on 31st December each year. For each Calculation Period, the performance fee in respect of each unit is equal to 10%.

The Portfolio Manager shall be entitled to a Performance Fee if the Sub-Fund produces an excess performance, defined as any positive difference between the performance of the current Gross Net Asset Value (GNAV) per Unit and the Base Net Asset Value per Unit for the same calculation period. If the difference is negative, excess performance is defined to be zero, and in such case the Portfolio Manager is not entitled to a Performance Fee and the negative performance at the end of any Calculation Period will not be carried forward to the next Calculation Periods. A Performance Fee will only be paid if the excess performance is above a 5% annual hurdle rate and if that is the case the Performance Fee will be calculated on the entire difference between the GNAV and the Base Net Asset Value.

The GNAV is calculated after the accrual of all fees but prior to the accrual of any Performance Fee on the relevant Valuation Day.

The Base Net Asset Value per each Unit is equal to the Net Asset Value of that Unit at the end of the previous Calculation Period.

as at 31st December 2015

In the case of Units redeemed during a Calculation Period, the accrued Performance Fee in respect of those Units shall be crystallized and subsequently paid to the Portfolio Manager at the end of the Calculation Period.

At the date of the report, a performance fee of EUR 23,447,143.61 was recorded for the Sub-Fund.

Note 5 - Central administration costs

Out of the Sub-Fund's assets an administration fee of maximum 0.135% p.a. is payable to the Management Company monthly in arrears based on the Sub-Fund's average net assets calculated monthly. This fee includes the fee due to the Depositary. However the Management Company is entitled to a minimum monthly administration cost of EUR 3,333 payable monthly in arrears to the Management Company.

Note 6 - Subscription duty ('taxe d'abonnement')

The Fund is governed by Luxembourg law.

Pursuant to the legislation and regulations in force, the Fund is subject to an annual subscription duty ("taxe d'abonnement") of 0.05% which is payable quarterly and calculated on the basis of the net assets of each Sub-Fund on the last day of each quarter.

Pursuant to Article 175 (a) of the amended law of 17th December 2010 the net assets invested in Undertakings for Collective Investment already subject to the "taxe d'abonnement" are exempt from this tax.

The rate of this tax may be reduced to 0.01% of the value of the net assets for Sub-Funds or classes of units reserved to institutional investors.

Remuneration disclosure

SEB Fund Services S.A. (SEB) has implemented a Remuneration policy that is designed to encourage good performance and behavior, and seeks to achieve a balanced risk-taking that goes in line with unitholders' expectations.

In SEB, there is clear distinction between the criteria for setting fixed remuneration (e.g. base pay, pension and other benefits) and variable remuneration (e.g. short- and long-term variable remuneration). The individual total remuneration corresponds to requirements on task complexity, management and functional accountability and also related to the individual's performance.

SEB provides a sound balance between fixed and variable remuneration and aligns the payout horizon of variable pay with the risk horizon. This implies that certain maximum levels and deferral arrangements apply for different categories of employees.

The amount below represents the proportion of the total remuneration on calendar year 2015 and adjusted according to the number of full time employees during the year 2015 and identified staff (i.e. the aggregate amount of remuneration broken down by senior management and members of staff of the AIFM/ Management Company whose actions have a material impact on the risk profile of the funds). This amount is further proportioned to the total net asset value of each fund, taking into account UCITS and non-UCITS.

2) Risk Management systems

The risk monitoring is based on the risk management process adopted by the Board of the AIFM and is performed independently from the portfolio management. No changes have been applied to the risk management procedures.

3) Leverage

In accordance with the Law of 12 July 2013 (the "2013 Law"), a maximum level of leverage has been determined for the AIF which the AIFM is entitled to employ on behalf of Rhenman & Partners Fund. The maximum level of leverage is 300% in accordance with the commitment method and 400% in accordance with the gross method of the total assets.

The AIFM calculates the leverage on a gross and on a commitment method in accordance with Article 7 and Article 8 of the Commission Delegated Regulation EU/ 231/ 2013 on a monthly basis. The gross method converts all positions on derivative financial instruments into equivalent positions in the underlying assets, while the commitment method applies the same while allowing netting and hedging arrangements.
